

I am opposed to the proposed relaxation of media ownership rules to allow more concentrated ownership of media outlets in local areas. I do not believe the proposed relaxation is in the best interest of an informed public or in the best interest of a diversity of opinion within the community.